Burges High School

7800 Edgemere, El Paso, Texas 79925

January 25, 2022

District IX Students and Advisors,

This letter has been prepared by Burges High School's current Student Body Spirit Manager, Astrid Loria, with the intent to run, on behalf of Burges High School, for 2022-2023 TASC District IX Parliamentarian.

I can attest that Burges Student Council, under the direction of our advisor, Ms. Ruth Bohlin, has been actively seeking to grow and serve beyond just our own council and campus. Therefore, our council desires to serve as an active, leading council of District IX in this next school year.

Burges Student Council's philosophy is based on impact through action and a Serve First mentality. We have a strong commitment and passion to build our capacity to serve our school, community and District IX by helping create opportunities for our district's councils to work together and maximize our potential to influence positive change! With passion, integrity, and hard work, our council continues to aspire toward greater horizons.

Burges High School has a history of upholding district office, including most recently, and under our current advisor, 2018-2019 Secretary and 2020-2021 President. Our council has remained active within district and state-level events by participating in Mid-level conference, Advanced Leadership workshop, Summer Leadership Workshop, both Fall and Spring District IX conventions, TASC Annual State Convention and District IX Winter Retreat. Our council has regularly achieved: Annual Sweepstake Winners, Superior rating for scrapbook, recognition of each of our committees and full marks for Outstanding Student Council.

As a district officer, we will be supportive of those whom we work with, and our hope is that we inspire and enable leaders with an enthusiastic and positive attitude of service. Thank you for your consideration.

Sincerely,

Astrid Loria
