Dear District IX,

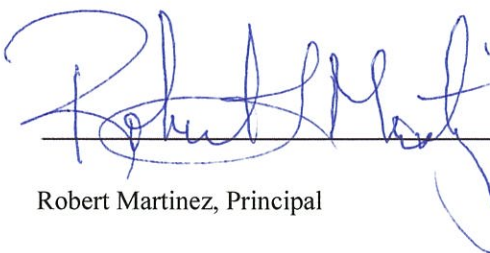

Eastwood High School is delighted to submit this letter of intent to run for the office of President of District IX, Trans Pecos Association of Student Councils of the Texas Association of Student Councils.

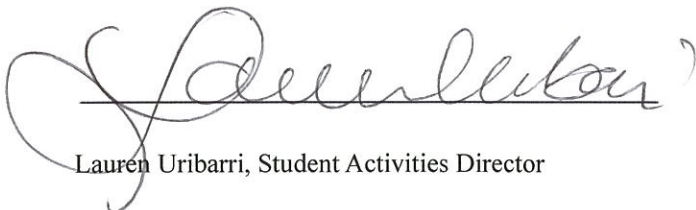

Eastwood continues to be a proud member of TASC and District IX, as we better ourselves as a council by attending events held by these outstanding associations. As a council, Eastwood is always ecstatic to bring home new leadership skills and opportunities to our campus after events such as fall conference, winter retreat, and state summer workshop. Undoubtedly, Eastwood High School has proven to be a distinguished and accomplished council as we have held TASC and District IX officer positions, are yearly TASC sweepstakes winner, a yearly TASC Outstanding Student Council, as well as many other accolades.

Sarah McNulty is an outstanding officer who demonstrates a great deal of leadership and responsibility needed to uphold the standard of excellence past representatives have set. As President, Eastwood will no doubt contribute to the betterment of TASC and District IX as student-led associations, and we are excited to positively impact councils across the district.

Respectfully,

Alexis Amaya, Student Body President

Robert Martinez, Principal

Lauren Uribarri, Student Activities Director

Sarah McNulty, Campus Representative
